

February Newsflash!!!!

It's Ski-Season - start with a fantastic winter holiday which leaves nothing to be desired!!

It is one of the most important holiday destinations in all of Austria - and one of the friendliest for families in all of Europe, too.

Since 1966, the two communities have been known as Zell am See-Kaprun and is a perfect place for holiday fun. Guests from all over the world throng in the heart of Pinzgau year after year.

About 138 kilometres of pistes and a unique offer of activities away from the trails make the region so interesting. The local mountains of Kitzsteinhorn and Schmittenhöhe are ideal for descending down into the valley on superb powder snow. As early as in October, skiers and snowboarders start into their snow-white season. At the foot of the mountains, visitors can choose from numerous relaxing leisure activities like, cross-country skiing, tobogganing, and hiking.
